Midlothian Heritage

Midlothian, just south of Edinburgh, is home to the historic enigma of Rosslyn Chapel as well as the Scottish Mining Museum, an anchor point of the European Route of Industrial Heritage. Experience the places, artefacts and activities that authentically represent the stories and people of the past and present. Discover the templar connections and seek the truth depicted in the ruined castles, historic churches and mining villages that together tell a story more compelling than the Da Vinci Code.
